EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The quality of the lives we lead ultimately comes down to the quality of our relationships. Love and any kind of relational intimacy needs continual renewal. Without that, it can become a kind of a contract that people are obliged to follow, draining the essence or the intrinsic value we attach to it. We live in times of technological change, political disruption and economic uncertainty. Our jobs may or may not last, but relationships and friendships with a solid foundation could be our constants. They could deepen our sense of meaning, but it won't just happen unless we make it a priority. I have known people with remarkably successful professional lives and sorry personal lives. I have seen them regret and reflect when it is too late to do something about it. I am, however, yet to meet someone who had great relationships and regretted investing time and energy nurturing them. Regret is revealing. So ask yourself what you would regret in the long term? The answer might just help you re-prioritise. These words might come across as a nudge to prioritise love over work, but as someone who built a large platform to help people find meaningful work, I can say with conviction that the two don't need to compete for our attention. Striking the right balance is the real challenge and an adventure worth embarking upon.

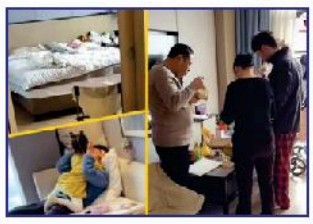
30-year vow of silence to end on Jan. 22

New Delhi: An 85-year-old woman is set to end a self-imposed 30-year vow of silence that only allowed her to speak for an hour a day.

Saraswati Devi, fondly known as 'Mauni Mata', began her 'maun vrat' (vow of silence) in 1992. She devoted her life to Lord Ram after the death of her husband in 1986 and has spent most of her time on pilgrimages ever since. In 1992, she arrived in Ayodhya, where she met Mahant Nritya Gopal Das, head of Ram Janmabhoomi Trust, who ordered her to circle Kamtanath Mountain as a sign of devotion to Lord Ram. On Dec. 6, the day when Babri Masjid was demolished in Ayodhya, Saraswati met Swami Nritya Gopal Das, the head of Ayodhya's largest temple, the Mani Ram Das Ki Chavani and was so inspired by him that she vowed to refrain from speaking until a new temple dedicated to Ram would be built in the city. Her vow will finally end later this month, with the inauguration of the Ram Mandir in Ayodhya on Jan. 22.

Family moves into hotel to save money



Beijing: A Chinese family has sparked a debate on social media after moving into a luxury hotel suite permanently because it's cheaper and more convenient than renting or owning a home.

The family of eight has been living in a luxury hotel in Nanyang, China's Henan Province, for 229 days and has no plans to move out anytime soon. After getting a special rate (1,000 yuan or $140 per day) for a suite with two bedrooms and a large living room, the family now plans to remain in the hotel indefinitely. Because the cost of the suite includes electricity, heating, water, and parking, the unnamed family claims that they actually save money by living in a hotel and their life is much more comfortable.

VOICE OF THE READER

Decline of passenger traffic from Mysore Airport

Sir,

The decline of passenger traffic from Mysore Airport is definitely due to two main reasons. One, except to Chennai and Hyderabad, there are no flights connecting smaller cities and two, lack of information regarding flights and other details to general public.

If flights to smaller cities like Belagavi, Shivamogga, Hubballi, Mangaluru, Kochi, Goa, Pune, Tirupathi and Shirdi are introduced, naturally the air traffic would increase.

Many people who can afford to fly do not have any information regarding Mysore Airport and the flight details. If such info is widely publicised in the media, it could surely help.

One fact to be noted is there are very good trains running from Mysuru to Chennai whereas for the smaller cities not many rail connectivity exist.

Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway

Rs. 688 crore to enhance safety measures

Mysuru, Jan. 13 (BLU&BCT)- The Central Government has earmarked Rs. 688 crore to bolster road safety measures on the Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway. The National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) recently concluded a comprehensive survey of the Expressway, prompted by a series of road accidents on the newly constructed road.

In response to safety concerns highlighted in the survey report, the Centre has initiated the bidding process for the construction of crucial infrastructure elements, including pedestrian flyovers, road markings, guard rails and crash barriers.

The identified hazardous spots, encompassing issues such as gradients, will undergo corrective road safety measures during this undertaking. The proposed improvements include increased lighting, foot overbridges, warning signs, headlight reflectors, road markings, guard rails and crash barriers along the Expressway.

The proposed investment aims to enhance safety infrastructure and mitigate road incidents along this crucial stretch.

As of the end of July 2023, the Expressway reported 400 accidents, resulting in 121 fatalities, according to the latest data from the Central Government. However, recent information indicates a decline in accidents due to stringent speed-control measures implemented by the Mandya, Ramanagara and Bidadi Police. The installation of Artificial Intelligence-based speed detectors further contributed to reducing accidents by penalising motorists exceeding 100 km/hour.

In an effort to enhance safety, the NHAI imposed a ban on two-wheelers and three-wheelers on the Expressway since Aug. 1, 2023. The safety measures will also check black spots prone to accidents on the Expressway.

Toilets, petrol pumps and foot overbridges on Expressway

Toilets near Ramanagara and Srirangapatna

Mysuru, Jan. 13 (BLU&BCT)- Amid criticism from commuters travelling between Mysuru and Bengaluru due to the absence of essential amenities such as washrooms, petrol bunks and pedestrian-friendly infrastructure along the 118-km long Expressway, the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) has taken a proactive step.

It has awarded a contract valued at Rs 36.5 crore to two companies tasked with constructing toilet blocks, food outlets and foot overbridges.

NHAI officials have outlined the plan, revealing that the access-controlled road will see the construction of four toilet blocks, two Nest (Mini) facilities providing drinking water, tea, coffee, packaged food and inclusive toilets for physically challenged individuals, along with 24 foot overbridges. Work orders for these facilities were issued last month.

Rahul Gupta, NHAI Project Director told reporters that one Nest (Mini) facility and one toilet block will be established on each side of the highway at the Sheshagirihalli Toll Plaza in Ramanagara District and at Gananguru in Srirangapatna Taluk of Mandya District.

The contract value for setting up Nest (Mini) and toilet blocks is Rs. 1.5 crore, while Rs. 35 crore will be allocated for the construction of 24 foot overbridges. These foot overbridges, integral to the project plan and a demand from villagers, will be set up at various locations.

Following discussions with panchayat members and other stakeholders, NHAI aims to complete the foot overbridges by December this year, with the toilet blocks and refreshment outlets ready by March.

Mysuru, Jan. 13 (RK&KS)- One person was killed on the spot, when a KSRTC bus rammed into the car near the lake at Varuna village on T. Narasipur Road in the taluk on Thursday afternoon.

Biligowda, who had gone to his agricultural land near Talakad, was returning to Mysuru in his Fiat Punto car (KA-11-M-4260), when the KSRTC bus (KA-10-F-0343) rammed into the car killing Biligowda on the spot.

Varuna Sub-Inspector Chethan and staff, who rushed to the spot, removed the body of Biligowda from the mangled car and shifted it to MMC&RI mortuary. Post-mortem was conducted and the body was handed over to the family members in the evening. Varuna Police have seized both the vehicles.

Two-wheelers banned atop B.R. Hills on Jan. 15 and 16

Yelandur, Jan.13- Owing to Biligiri Ranganathaswamy Rathotsava and Chikkajatre organised as part of Sankranti festival, entry of two-wheelers to B.R. Hills (Biligirirangana Hills) in Chamarajanagar district has been banned on Jan. 15 and 16.

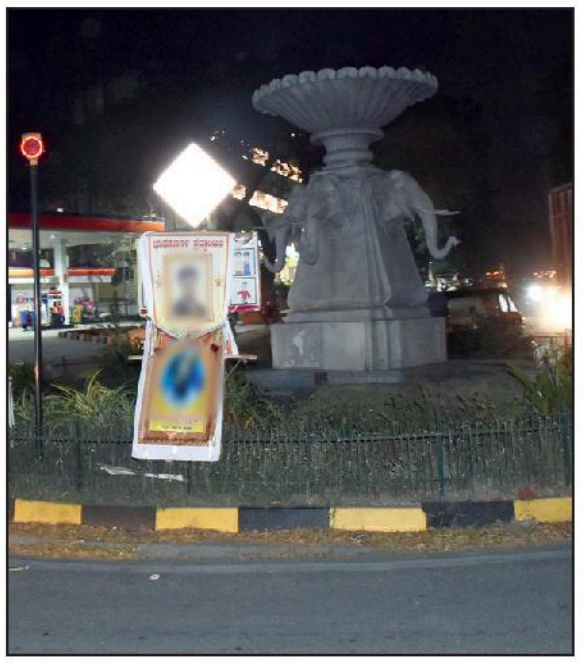
MCC HELP !

Mysuru is turning into Flex City



Mysuru has been called a Royal Heritage City, but it feels like we're living in 'Flex City.' Our city is plagued by the menace of flex hoardings and banners everywhere — at Circles, on buildings, on footpaths, on trees and even on Expressway. Last year, this plague had even reached all the way to the top of Chamundi Hill!

In March last year, the 'muhurat' of a Kannada movie was held atop Chamundi Hill. To mark the occasion, the movie's flex posters were stuck all along the road, all the way to the top of the Hill. An ugly sight indeed. No action was taken against the producers by the MCC.

Flex menace in Karnataka is so pervasive that in 2019, an artist named Ravikumar Kashi wrote a book titled 'Flexing Muscles' about the flex culture, especially in Bengaluru. We have the same in Mysuru too.

Every year, the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) tells us that they will rescue our city from the menace of flex banners and posters. The MCC once even had the audacity to declare Mysuru as being 'flex-free' !

They then declared that they would 'fine' flex ban violators. But then the MCC and District Administration doesn't have enough muscle to flex against flex banners. Why so cynical, one may ask. How can one not be? Considering that this farce of making the city flex-free is played out every year?

In August 2014, the Urban Development Ministry announced that it will fine 'heavily' those who erect unauthorised cut-outs, banners or hoardings! What happened? Nothing.

In 2006, the MCC proposed to declare K.R. Circle, Gandhi Square to Chamaraja Circle, Five-Lights Circle, Ramaswamy Circle, Ashoka Road, Irwin Road and Sayyaji Rao Road as 'hoarding-free' zones and ban commercial hoardings within 100 metres of heritage sites. What happened? Hoardings and banners are still around.

In 2009, MCC started an 'illegal hoarding drive' to which some people protested and the drive was stopped.

In 2011, MCC Council passed a resolution banning hoardings in the core heritage areas with the then MCC Commissioner K.S. Raikar saying, "We held discussions with the City Police Commissioner, who has agreed to file cases against those violating the MCC directive on advertising hoardings and flex boards." What happened? Nothing.

Just the day before yesterday, the MCC Commissioner said that they have issued notices and asked the Zonal Commissioners to clear out the flex… but flex remains!

The penalty for unauthorised disfigurement by advertisement as per The Karnataka Open Places (Prevention of Disfigurement) Act, 1981 makes unauthorised advertisement in public space punishable with imprisonment and fine. Has the MCC booked anyone of significance till date? No. That is why it has not stopped.

This ineffective drive by authorities has emboldened many and now our Circles and trees are not safe.

Circles in Mysuru have been turned into mediaeval town centres; where all announcements, be it death, election or festivals are announced with huge flex posters.

Most flex banners are also visual pollution, especially political hoardings. They are huge, with the 'senior' politician at the centre of the poster and his chamchas grinning from his stomach, chest and forehead.

Our leaders can stop this but they don't, they love it. Even the most educated politicians don't stop this.

A few years ago, Prof. Rajeev Gowda, the Congress MP, who graduated from the prestigious IIM (Indian Institute of Management) and who was working with a initiative to keep Bengaluru clean, called 'Swalpa Clean-up Maadi,' was caught off-guard when his own photo turned up on the city walls wishing him on his 50th birthday.

When he was asked about it, he nonchalantly said, "There are people who want to wish me on my birthday. But they cannot pay Rs. 1 lakh for a billboard. We need to have a facility that will help people advertise without affecting the aesthetics of the city." Did he create such a facility? NO. We wonder why he couldn't tell his followers to spend that money on a social cause instead of wasting it on posters wishing him.

Politicians cannot stop this menace because they love it. Politicians thrive and survive on public perception of them being powerful and these posters and defiance of the law is part of creating that perception.

Finally, the Government itself becomes a violator of laws. They not only put up poorly designed and flimsy awareness flex posters but also stick their flex advertisements on hoardings that belong to private individuals!

This menace of illegal hoardings cannot be stopped with fines; it can be prevented only by a 'tearing down drive' – just tear the illegal flex posters down.

Like the Police have 'Garuda' cars and 'Cheetah' bikes for patrolling, MCC also can have a 'Giraffe' — a jeep with a long ladder, that patrols the city and tear down illegal banners.

Meanwhile, the Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway also needs some rescuing from hoardings. There are just too many sprouting up. They have not only become quite a distraction but they also mar the beauty of the drive.

May be the Government can ban putting up tall and huge hoardings in the scenic parts of the Expressway so the tourists as they drive to Mysuru, can at least get to see the beauty of Ramanagar's monoliths, after all they are Asia's largest and the sight of green paddy fields is awe-inspiring.

Right now, the Expressway is almost reflective of what to expect at the end of their journey — Mysuru the 'Flex City'.

While our administration constantly talks about the beautification of our city, they encourage its 'uglification' by not implementing the law. Unless the MCC really flexes its muscles against flex, our city will become 'Flex City.' We also will never again become the Cleanest City in India.

Mysore will become an Eyesore.

MP inaugurates pure drinking water unit opposite Zoo

Says not bothered about who the Congress candidate is

Mysuru, Jan.13 (BLU&DM)- In yet another citizen benefit initiative, BJP MP Pratap Simmha inaugurated a Pure drinking water unit opposite the Mysuru Zoo in Ittigegud here this morning.

The people can get 2 litres of pure drinking water for Rs.2 and 20 litres for Rs.5.

Later speaking to press persons, Simmha, replying to a question, said that he is least bothered whether the Chief Minister's son Dr.Yathindra Siddaramaiah or someone else from the Congress will contest against him in the forthcoming LS polls from Mysuru- Kodagu seat. Asserting that no opposition candidate can withstand the popularity of PM Modi, Simmha reiterated that he is not at all worried about who the Congress candidate would be.

Chiding that the Congress has reached the stage where it wants its Cabinet Ministers to contest the LS polls, Simmha maintained that the Congress Ministers were in a dilemma as they fear that would lose the LS polls if they contest.

Maintaining that there were no confusions regarding the BJP-JD(S) alliance, the MP said that he has the blessings of leaders of both the parties. Stating that it would be good if Dr.Yathindra Siddaramaiah was to contest against him, he said that then the fight would be between the son of the Chief Minister and Journalist Pratap Simmha.

Noting that while it was veteran BJP leader L.K.Advani who launched Ratha Yatra for the cause of Ayodhya Ram Mandir, Simmha said it was BJP leader Ravishankar Prasad who waged a Court battle and later it was PM Modi who championed the cause across the country.

Pointing out that, the BJP played a major role right from Advani to Modi in the construction of Ram Mandir, Simmha contended that the Congress had no role whatsoever in the Ayodhya movement and such, the Congress is feeling guilty and has decided to stay away from Ram Mandir inauguration set to take place on Jan.22.

Commenting on CM Siddaramaiah's statement that he would visit Ayodhya after Jan.22, Simmha said that the CM must go along with his associates to wash off the sins of the Congress.

Replying to a question on his meeting with former CM and JD(S) leader H.D. Kumaraswamy, Simmha said that he had met him to express gratitude to Kumaraswamy as he stood solidly behind his (Simmha) family in the tree felling case.

Returning back to questions on his candidature, Simmha said that though he was officially the BJP candidate, in reality, he was an all-party candidate in the two previous LS polls. Simmha shot back at the remarks of Chikkaballapur Congress MLA Pradeep Eshwar's comments about him, by comparing Eshwar's remarks to gutter water, on which he would not throw stones at.

sc stays unveiling of statue at Gun House Circle

Mysuru, Jan. 13 (MK,GA&BS)- President of Ursu Mandali Sangha HMT Lingaraje Urs has said that Supreme Court (SC) has granted a stay on the unveiling of the statue of the late Pontiff of Suttur Mutt Dr. Sri Shivarathri Rajendra Swamiji at Shivarathri Rajendra Circle (Gun House Circle). He was speaking to reporters at the Sangha premises in Agrahara here yesterday.

Lingaraje Urs, who is also the Convener of the Samiti, said: "Advocate C.M. Subramanya, a High Court Advocate from Mysuru, had filed a petition in the Karnataka High Court through his Counsel against the ongoing works related to the statue. The Judge, who heard the arguments, had directed a notice seeking explanation from the Mysuru Deputy Commissioner and others in the District Committee, but the Court did not issue any stay on the works."

Hence, Advocate Subramanya filed a Special Leave Petition (SLP) through Senior Advocate Dama Seshadri Naidu in the Supreme Court on Jan. 8.

The Three-Judge Bench including Justices B.R. Gavai, Prashant Kumar Mishra and Sandeep Mehta that heard the petition, issued a stay on unveiling of the statue, Urs said.

"We will meet the Deputy Commissioner and apprise him about the stay order issued by the Supreme Court and to suspend the ongoing works related to the statue. When enquired about the authority which granted permission for the works, neither the District Administration nor the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) are providing any information," Lingaraje Urs added.

Roads become threshing yards

City family escapes as car catches fire

Nanjangud, Jan. 13 (BCT)- A family of five from the city had a miraculous escape when their car caught fire upon entering an asphalted road where farmers had laid horse gram produce for threshing yesterday. Thankfully, all passengers emerged unharmed, preventing a potential tragedy.

Despite warnings from the District Administration and the Police, rural roads in Mysuru frequently transform into makeshift threshing grounds, with farmers spreading their agricultural produce for processing. The intertwining of straw with vehicle wheels is a common occurrence, sometimes leading to friction-induced fires on the asphalted road.

Yesterday's incident occurred near Hoskote village in Nanjangud taluk and a Police complaint has been registered in this regard. According to the complaint and the Police, Richard, a resident of Rajivnagar in the city, was travelling along with his mother and family members in a Nano car (KA-01-MJ-3416).

The family had visited Nanjangud and was on their way back to Mysuru via Suttur-Hoskote Road. As part of the threshing process, farmers had spread horse gram produce up to two feet on the road, which involves loosening the edible part of the grain from the attached husks and straw.

It is a common practice for many farmers to lay out their harvest on the roads during the day, allowing vehicles to pass over and facilitate the threshing process without the need for labour-intensive tasks.

Observing the road laden with crops, Richard cautiously manoeuvred his vehicle along the side, steering clear of driving over the harvest. Unfortunately, straws from the crop ignited beneath the vehicle's engine due to friction. Unaware of the fire, Richard continued driving.

As smoke began billowing from the rear of the car, a few farmers in the field adjacent to the roadside attempted to alert the occupants. However, Richard misconstrued their gestures, thinking the farmers were communicating among themselves, and continued driving.

Some bikers overtook the car and urgently signalled the occupants about the fire. Panicked, the family members inside the car became aware of the situation. Richard promptly brought the car to a halt and swiftly led his family out of the vehicle.

In a matter of moments after everyone exited, the car erupted into flames and was completely charred within minutes. Despite the villagers' efforts to douse the flames by splashing water on the vehicle, it was reduced to ashes.

Richard informed Star of Mysore that his car, a 2012-make, was covered by third-party insurance, rendering him unable to claim insurance money for the extensively damaged vehicle. The horse gram produce belonged to farmer Ravindra, who was present in the field during the incident and also attempted to alert the driver about the emerging fire.

Biligere Police visited the site, assessing the situation. Subsequently, a conciliatory meeting was held between the car owner and the farmers. However, the meeting failed to yield any resolution, prompting Richard to file a formal Police complaint.

MP Pratap Simmha seeks blessings of former CM

Bengaluru, Jan. 13 (KMS&DM)- With the Lok Sabha polls just a couple of months away, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simmha met JD(S) MLA and former Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) at his farmhouse near Bidadi in Bengaluru Rural district on Friday and sought his blessings.

The meeting comes just days after former Minister and senior BJP leader V. Somanna met former PM H.D. Deve Gowda at Bengaluru, during which Somanna is said to have come out in support of Simmha, whose younger brother was named in an illegal tree-felling case at Belur in Hassan district, in which Pratap Simmha was targeted by Congress leaders.

The JD(S) entered into an alliance with the BJP in November last, six months after JD(S) received a drubbing in the Assembly polls held in May last.

Simmha is said to have met the former CM to express his gratitude for coming out in support of him in the tree-felling case, which the MP has accused the Congress Govt. of unnecessarily targeting him and his family members ahead of crucial LS polls.

IAS Officer Rohini Sindhuri Vs IPS Officer D. Roopa

We intend to close case as both have bright future: SC

Rohini Sindhuri

D. Roopa

New Delhi, Jan. 13 (Agencies)- The Supreme Court (SC) has indicated its inclination to bring the criminal defamation case initiated by IAS Officer and former Mysuru Deputy Commissioner Rohini Sindhuri against IPS Officer D. Roopa to a close, citing the bright future of both officers.

Hearing the case filed by Sindhuri against Roopa yesterday, the Supreme Court Bench, comprising Justice Abhay S. Oka and Justice Ujjal Bhuyan, sought clarification from Roopa's Counsel on whether all social media posts had been taken down and inquired whether the matter could be closed with a settlement between both parties.

Sindhuri has alleged in her defamation complaint that Roopa shared photos, made allegations on social media, and made statements in the media questioning her personal and professional conduct to tarnish her before the public and colleagues. The case was filed under the IPC Section 500 (defamation), seeking damages of Rs. 1 crore. Last December, the Court had directed Roopa to remove her social media posts against Rohini Sindhuri.

During yesterday's hearing, the Counsel representing Sindhuri stated that the case could be closed, but insisted on an apology. "Derogatory posts directed at me can be erased from social media, but the impact on my family is deeply distressing. How can I pursue a career in public life? I want an unconditional apology from Roopa," Sindhuri told the Court through her Advocate. She told the Court that public perceptions of individuals change, making it challenging to remain silent.

Countering this, Roopa submitted that Sindhuri had publicly stated that she (Roopa) was delusional, an assertion denied by Sindhuri's Lawyer, who argued that delusional individuals make posts like this but clarified that Sindhuri did not claim Roopa was delirious.

The Bench cautioned against making personal allegations, and Sindhuri's Counsel stressed the need for an unconditional apology, citing media harassment of his client's family. While Roopa's Counsel mentioned the removal of content, the Court insisted on regret from both sides.

The Bench urged the Counsel to take the initiative, emphasising the importance of removing content from social media. The Court granted them a month for these actions, acknowledging the potential difficulty in compelling a resolution if emotions remained high.

The Court scheduled the matter for further hearing in the second week of February.

The row between the two officials surfaced after Roopa levelled 19 personal allegations against Sindhuri.
